Brent Sanders: True Life Bluegrass Paintings

Brent Sanders is an artist from Chattanooga, Tennessee who enjoys painting people. When capturing their spirit, he says he tries to strike a harmonic balance, and works to portray the diversity of the people living in the South. "I want to convey the uniqueness of the culture and the harmony in which we live with one another." Musicians are a favorite study of his, bluegrass musicians in particular. He says, "I always like the musicians because they tend to stand out and capture attention." Chuckling, he adds, "As I am somewhat of a hack musician myself, I've always tended to be drawn to them."

If you are interested in Brent's work, he is represented by Terry Powell of Blue Crow Studios, 4410 Medical Parkway (Just south of the Burnet Road/45th Street intersection) in Austin, and can be reached at (512) 420-0668. Or, take a look at Brent's own website at www.brentsanders.com.

The Tenbrooks Banjos

Deering's new Tenbrooks banjos elevate America's beloved instrument to a classical purity of tone that is historically unprecedented! Named after the famed Kentucky Derby winner, Tenbrooks who was immortalized by Bill Monroe, the father of bluegrass, in his traditional favorite, "Mollie and Tenbrooks," Deering's newest model has a depth and tonal dimension never before achieved.

This quantum leap in the evolution of the banjo is the culmination of a collaborative effort between Greg Deering, internationally renowned banjoist, Jens Krüger, and the oldest bell foundry in Europe.

Re-evaluating all the components of the banjo, these unique and talented individuals created the Tenbrooks banjo to attain the utmost in performance, comfort, speed, and tonal purity that has raised the bar for all professional bluegrass banjos to a higher level of sound quality and performance.

It's a fast paced world...but at Deering, we build your dreams one hand-crafted banjo at a time.
Personal service and world-class quality are ALWAYS worth the price.

When you own a Deering, you own the very finest!

Hey Bluegrassers!

There will be a NEW JAMMIN' SPOT hosted by some "North Austinites" at Hanover's in Pflugerville. Since it is early, you can spend more of the day with your family or if you are a "Die Hard Picker", you can attend both the Pflugerville jam and still make it to Artz Rib House (from 2-6)!

The folks at Hanover's are very excited to have a jam and have expressed interest in future Bluegrass & BBQ Events depending on it's popularity and attendance. There is a covered outdoor stage with plentiful seating and a covered patio for picking.

They serve BBQ from 11 am on and there is plenty of room outside to jam! There is an inside area in the bar, but it is a "smoking" establishment.

Bring your instruments! Bring your friends! Bring the whole family and most of all bring a SMILE!

We will be looking forward to pickin' with you!

Call Trish and Kevin for info: 251 9545.

Hanovers is located on the corner of Main Street and Railroad Avenue in Pflugerville.

Directions:

From I 35 take the Wells Branch exit (#247)

Band Scramble and Fundraiser A Big Success

The annual CTBA Garage Sale and Band Scramble was a huge success. Over $483 was accumulated through sale items and donations, which included a banjo donated by Deering Banjo Company, and other items from generous bluegrass fans. We also had $95 in new and renewal memberships. Many of the areas best bluegrass musicians came out to participate in the band scramble. Over $180.36 was raised in tips in appreciation for the fine show put on by all. The money raised will go towards supporting a variety of CTBA projects, including the Bluegrass in the Schools Project and the CTBA Music Scholarship. Thanks to all those who pitched in and made this such a fun and successful event.

A big thanks to Eddie Collins for all his efforts in organizing and running the band scramble, Jane Laughlin and Russ Gunn for their work with the garage sale, the musicians who generously gave their time and talent and to all the listeners who came out in support.

Hello Bluegrass Fans,

Eddie Adcock recently underwent heart surgery to correct 6 blockages. In surgery his lungs collapsed and now he is incapacitated with severe lung infections. He will be out of work for many months but is expected to recover. I am putting together a benefit concert for him on August 22, 2004 and would appreciate any help you can give in getting the word out. The Bay Area Bluegrass Association is handling the finances and donations are gratefully accepted at the address given on the link I have included. Eddie is a very giving individual and he deserves all that we can give him to help through these hard times. Please go to the link below for further details. <http://www.lonestarbluegrassband.com/adcockflier2.jpg>

Thanks a million!
Chris Hirsch.

Answer: all the above. Delano Floyd McCoury, age 64, was born in North Carolina but raised on a dairy farm in York County PA. He first heard Bill Monroe and the Blue Grass Boys playing on the Opry radio broadcasts in the late 1940's. Not long after, he heard a recording of Flatt and Scruggs doing "Roll In My Sweet Baby's Arms" and was hooked on banjo.

He played banjo with several bands around southeast Pennsylvania and Maryland, joined Monroe in 1963 for a year playing guitar, then went to California to play banjo with the Golden State Boys. Married by this time and homesick, he and his wife only stayed out west a short time, then returned to Pennsylvania. Raising his family, he began cutting timber and trimmed his music back to part time. Still, he did make a record for Rounder in 1972 with his band, the Dixie Pals ("High On A Mountain").

With the family grown, McCoury returned to full-time music in the mid-1980s and since then the Del McCoury Band, either individually or collectively, has accounted for over 30 IBMA awards and was inducted into the Opry last fall.

The present band (Del, Ronnie, and Rob McCoury on guitar, mandolin, and banjo, respectively; Jason Carter on fiddle; and Mike Bub on base) has been together for eleven years.
