Austin Mandolin Enthusiasts Unite!

The Austin Mandolin Orchestra performs traditional and original works featuring mandolin family instruments, including mandolin, mandola, and mandocello. Founded this fall by AFTM member Joel Hobbs, the orchestra has begun regular rehearsals in preparation for a spring 2005 concert. AMO's mission is to nurture the community of mandolin players in central Texas and provide unique educational and performance opportunities for mandolin enthusiasts.

Joel Hobbs, also a member of the Classical Mandolin Society of America, has participated in two mandolin orchestras over the summer to gather ideas and prepare for launching AMO. In May, Joel participated in the Mandofest Orchestra in Lawrence Kansas with a group of about 35 mandolinists, including guest soloist John Reischmann. In August, a contingent of four Austin mandolin players travelled to Santa Cruz California to participate in the first

Mandolin Symposium, which culminated in a concert including an orchestra of about 150 mandolinists playing a tune arranged by David Grisman and conducted by Chris Thile.

While many members are advanced mandolinists who play in other area groups, the AMO also provides opportunities for less experienced players. AMO conducts bi-weekly rehearsals, including an pre-rehearsal teaching session. The repertoire includes a diverse range music including Irish, Latin, swing, and classical.

AMO will publish a quarterly newsletter for players and fans of mandolin music. For more information, contact Joel Hobbs at joelh@hyoshi.com or call 512-217-9970.

Local Austin mandolin virtuoso Paul Glasse, his wife, and child were broadsided by someone who ran a red light this past Saturday afternoon while they were on their way back from the Christmas parade in downtown Austin. Everyone is on the mend, and things could have come out much worse. His child has a broken arm, and his wife escaped with a few bumps and bruises. However, his wife was 8 months pregnant, so they went ahead and delivered the baby by a C-section. (Congratulations to the proud parents!!) Mom and baby are fine. Everyone, but Paul has been discharged from the hospital.

Paul is still in ICU and probably will stay there for a few more days. He has broken ribs and punctured lungs. He is not in any real danger, but it will take him a while to recover. He is expected to remain at Brackenridge Hospital for several weeks. Cards and good wishes can probably be delivered to him there at:

Paul Glasse c/o Brackenridge Hospital
601 East 15th Street
Austin, Tx. 78701

It would probably be a good idea not to overwhelm the healing, proud parents with phone calls. Send them a nice note or card instead. Let's keep them in our thoughts and prayers as they recover.

Remember, these folks were injured by someone who failed to stop at a red light. As we venture further into the "Silly Season" of Christmas shopping and New Years partying, please drive carefully.

Answer: (b) All of 'em started young but Rhonda's the one. She was born in Kirksville MO in July, 1962 and grew up in Greentop MO. At age three she was riding to a birthday party with her parents, who started singing "Happy Birthday" in two-part harmony. To their amazement, Rhonda chimed in with the third part. They did it two more times in different keys, with the same result.

The Vincents were a musical family where people came over almost every night to socialize and play music. Rhonda would play with her father and grandfather on the porch every day after school. She could handle the mandolin at age 7.

By 1967, the Vincent family had a band and a TV show in Iowa and a radio show in Missouri. That same year, the family recorded a gospel album on which Rhonda—age 5—sang two songs.

She took up the fiddle in 1970, memorized every song on a Benny Martin LP, and won the Missouri Fiddle Championship in 1973 and 1977. At age 9, she recorded her version of "Muleskinner Blues" which won a Best Single award from the SPBGMA, which also named her Female Vocalist of the Year so many times they retired her from the competition.

Her grandfather stayed with the family band until his death in 1972 and in 1990, known as the Sally Mountain Show, their band performed for the first time on the Opry.
