Max Zimmet and friends

CTBA Night at Artz Rib House

2330 S. Lamar, 7:30 - 9:30 pm

Saturday, 5th August

Max will be accompanied by some of the best musicians in the Central Texas area. Rumor has it that Eddie Collins, Mike Montgomery, Tom Duplissey, Jamie Stubblefield, and Steve Zimmet will be playing with Max. This will definitely be a great show and an experience you will not want to miss. CTBA featured Max in our May bulletin, and this will be his last show before he heads off to Boston to study at the Berklee College of Music. We wish you the best Max, and may good luck pursue you daily.

Another Successful CTBA Band Scramble!

We want to thank everyone who donated to the garage sale and those who participated in the 9th Annual CTBA Band Scramble and Garage Sale. The event was a huge success and we were able to raise over six-hundred dollars for the organization. A special thanks goes out to Eddie Collins for doing a fantastic job as the Master of Cerimonies. Eddie is a true key to the success of this organization. Enjoy these pics submitted by Sigi Fields. Thanks Sigi!

BLUEGRASS REVIEW

by Sean McCormick

Kenny & Amanda Smith Band

Always Never Enough

the latest album by Kenny & Amanda Smith, featuring 14 tracks.

Kenny Smith (lead guitar, vocals) brings a unique guitar style and heartfelt vocals to the group. Most people are familiar with Kenny's earlier work with Claire Lynch and most notably with the Lonesome River Band. Amanda and Kenny met at a Lonesome River Band concert in West Virginia in 1995. The couple soon got married. In 2001 Kenny left LRB to start the Kenny & Amanda Smith Band.

Amanda Smith's (rhythm guitar, vocals) vocal style is a blend somewhere between Allison Krauss and Rhonda Vincent. Some of her best vocal work on this album includes: "Why Do You Do What You Do", and "Our Last Goodbye"

Steve Huber (banjo) is well known for his personally designed and manufactured quality banjos and tone rings. His banjo style smoothly blends perfectly with Kenny's guitar, and Amanda's voice.

Jason Robertson (mandolin) met Kenny at the world famous Galax Fiddlers' Convention in southwestern Virginia. His fluid mandolin style, much in the vein of Adam Steffey, lends to the sound of the band.

Alan Bartram (bass, vocals) lends his rock solid rhythm, vocals, and song writing to the group. The songs "She's On My Mind", and "When Her Smile Is Gone" showcase his great lead singing.

This CD is a must have for all fans of bluegrass music!
